

Bapuji Pharmacy College Graduation Day 2019

Bapuji Pharmacy College celebrated the fifth graduation day on 3rd August 2019 for the 5th outgoing batch of Doctor of Pharmacy (2013-19 batch). The auspicious occasion was started with the convocation song by Miss Manasa. This was followed by watering the plant by dignitaries on the dais and student representatives to spread the positive aura. A total of 19 students were given certificates by Chief guest of the function Dr. Nataraja M.C., Principal, Bapuji Institute of Engineering and Technology, Davangere. During his oration lecture he focused on the various transformations taking place in the education. He also highlighted the necessity and involvement of Pharm. D professionals in various clinical pharmacy services in the hospital. He stressed the importance of objective based education in the pharmacy colleges. Dr. J.H. Mruthyunjaya presided over the function. Dr. A. P. Basavarajappa, Principal honoured the chief guest. Sri Ashok R. Chanchi welcomed the guests, Dr. J. Thimmasetty introduced the guests, followed by recitation of graduation pledge by Dr. Megha Mary Jose. Dr. Denitta Edassery presented valedictorian speech. Mr. Amit Kumar B. proposed vote of thanks. The Pharm. D. students of the college and parents of the graduating students witnessed the occasion. The programme concluded with national anthem.

